JUNE RACES NOW IN DOUBT

HORSEMEN SEEM TO TAKE BUT LITTLE INTEREST.

Two Answers Received from Owners—But Four Horses Represented—Believe that a Cup Would Revive Things.

Secretary S. G. Wilder, of the Jockey Club, has heard from two horsemen in reply to his queries for expressions of opinion regarding the holding of a race meet at Kapiolani Park on June 11—Kamehameha Day.

These two horsemen represent the grand total of four horses and they are heartily in favor of keeping alive the sport. The Jockey Club secretary keeps an anxious eye on the postoffice, with confident expectation of getting another answer or two.

Things are looking rather doubtful just now for the Kamehameha day race meet. The treasury of the Jockey Club is depleted and unless money is forthcoming from some source it will very likely be necessary to abandon the meet.

A prominent Jockey Club member and owner of a string of horses said today that he believed that the lack of interest in horse racing at present existing among the horsemen on the Islands was due to some extent because of there being no cup to compete for. During the days of Kalakaua and even after his death there was great rivalry among the horsemen for the elegant Japanese silver cup presen-ed to King Kalakaua by the Emperor of Japan. This costly trophy was hung up for a number of years, and last year it was carried away by Col. Z. S.
Spalding, of Kauai, he having won it at three successive meets on Kamehameha day.

This gentleman stated that he had heard some members of the club say that if Col. Spalding would offer another cup, as they believed it was his place to do, it would have a tendency to revive interest in the sport. Col.
Spalding has a fine bunch of racing horses at his stables on Kauai.

EXPERT MECHANIC.

in position the new boiler bought of his firm by this Government, for the water works department. He will start in on his work next week.

will give her time to the teaching of harmony, rhythmic development, etc.
Mrs. Ouellette has studied with the best American and European teachers, as well as at the Boston and New York conservatories. Her temporary residence is the Hawaiian hotel.

LEAVES THE MILITIA.
Capt. J. M. Camara's retirement from Company C and the National Guard of Hawaii took the form of a farewell banquet at the drill shed last evening, immediately after the di-ing of the Second Battalion. Capt. Camara is leaving the militia for obvious reasons. He wished that prosperity would follow the company under the new commander, Capt. Gonsalves. Brief remarks complimentary to Capt. Camara were made by Lieut. Col. Fisher, Maj.
McLeod, Maj. Jones, Capt. Coyne and J. M. Vivas.

BICYCLE TRACK AT KEWALO

ENTERPRISE FALLS THROUGH FOR LACK OF FUNDS.

There Will Be No Bicycle Track, Says Mr. Desky—He Does Not Favor the Road Club's Offer—Pleasure Resort.

There will be no bicycle track at Ke-walo.

That is the decision of Charles S.
Desky after having the matter under consideration for the past week. The committee appointed at a mass meeting of wheelmen last month by Chairman Thurston abandoned all hope of securing ample funds to make the scheme a go. This information was sent Mr. Desky early this week.

The Honolulu Road Club then began negotiations with the owner of the Ke-walo district. The proposition submitted was that Mr. Desky should build the track and erect a grand stand and other necessary buildings. The Road Club would then lease the grounds for a brief period, securing the indorsement of several of the largest firms of the city.

It was this proposition which Mr.
Desky refused to enter into today. He says that it would not be a good investment for him in any way. He fears that after the first lease expired on the grounds, the track, grand stand and other buildings would be left on his hands.

"I propose to go right ahead and beautify the Kewalo grounds, just the same," said Mr. Desky this morning.
"The banks of the Cyclomere lake will be lined with young trees and my endeavor will be to make a pleasure resort out of the spot."

In speaking of the track project a prominent wheelman said this morning:

"There are 2074 Americans in the city, the British number 1308, the Germans 578, the Portuguese 3833. Taking Europeans, of all races, and Americans together there are in the city of Honolulu 8397 whites. Out of this number there surely is one thousand sport loving people who can afford and ought to pledge themselves to take twenty-four tickets at 50 cents each, or twelve tickets at $1 each, which will entitle them to a reserved seat. These tickets to be used any time during the year. This would be sufficient guarantee to allow a company to be formed to carry on the project."

LASE BALL TODAY.

The Punahou and Kamehameha Students Open the Season.

The base ball season will be opened this afternoon on the Makiki grounds.

TOOK A DROP.

By advices arriving on the Alameda yesterday Castle & Cooke were informed that sugar stock took a downward course on March 4, probably owing the unfavorable comments upon the trusts, made by President McKinley in his inaugural address. The quotations received were $115 3/4 for common and $103 for preferred.

Sugar still held steady at 3 3/4 cents.
Granulated also remains the same.
Beets have advanced a trifle, to $8 10 1/2 d per cwt.

RECOMMEND JUDGE MORROW.

A meeting of the Bar Association of San Francisco was held recently to consider whether the association should recommend a man to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Judge McKenna. It was decided that the association should do so, and Judge W. W. Morrow was selected as the man whom it would support.

THE MODERN WAY

Commends itself to the well informed, to do pleasantly and effectually what was formerly done in the crudest manner and disagreeably as well. To cleanse the system and break up colds, headaches, and fevers without unpleasant after effects, use the delightful liquid laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs.

AGENT SAYS ADVERTISE

THE ONLY WAY TO GET TOURISTS
TO COME.

Interview With a Representative of the Cook Excursion Agency—Tourist Trade to Be Built Up by His Firm.

Residents of the islands oft times wonder why it is that more tourists do not come here. People who visit the country ask of the hotel proprietors, ship officers or some resident friend or acquaintance why they do not encounter more travelers in the islands. They will say: "You have a most glorious country, full of sunshine, green spots and a most congenial climate. Surely a traveler seeking pleasure or rest could not ask for more."

"Then, why is it?" everyone asks.

Mr. A. E. Kaeser, a prominent young man of San Francisco, who represents the great tour managing firm of Thos. Cook & Son, with offices in all the large population centers on the globe, has a very good explanation to make for this condition of things. Mr.
Kaeser left for the Orient on the China in charge of a party of Eastern people, who have just completed a tour of the Hawaiian Islands.

"Your country is not advertised enough," said he. "There are hundreds and hundreds of people all over the world and more especially in the United States who would be delighted to spend the winter months among the valleys and hills of these islands were they aware of the many inviting pleasure spots that Hawaii nei contains. Why even in California and along the Pacific coast very little is known of the Hawaiian Islands."

"It was merely through a visit to these islands that a member of the firm of Thos. Cook & Son secured a knowledge of them. He at once resolved to build up a tourist trade to Hawaii and I am now in Honolulu with my first party. While the party is not as large as we would like it to be still we are confident that another year or two a business can be built up which will be a benefit to the islands and at the same time lucrative to us.
So well pleased with the trip have been those in the present party that they assure me a large party this fall to be made up of their friends and relatives."

"Then again we are issuing a vast amount of literature on Hawaii and its attractions, in the form of neatly gotten up pamphlets handsomely printed and illustrated books. These are being sent broadcast over the United States. California will be the first state to be as thoroughly posted on this interesting little country, as the power of money will do. My firm sincerely believe that Hawaii can be made a famous winter and pleasure resort and they propose to go after the trade with an earnestness and determination which is bound to win."

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

The Rev. J. M. Monroe will speak at the Young Men's Christian Association Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the Gospel meeting. Subject, "Are You Ready for His Coming?" Matt. 24:36-42. These meetings are made specially interesting for young men and every one is invited.

The Bible class, which started last Sunday with such good prospects, will have its second meeting at the Association parlors Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. This is certainly a pleasant and profitable way for a young man to spend an hour on Sunday afternoon.

The Reading Room Committee have just purchased a very fine Standard Dictionary for the Association. It will be for the use of the members and will be placed on a stand in Secretary Coleman's office.

Secretary Coleman has found a great opportunity for personal work among the young men of the city and has decided to send for one hundred books of the Bible Institute Colportage Association, Chicago, for distribution among the members and others who come into the association.

PATENT SHAFT SPRINGS.

W. W. Wright, proprietor of the Honolulu Carriage Manufactory, has invented and patented a new attachment for brakes that does away with all the horse motion. The convenience of the patent, its simplicity of construction and adaptability to any brake with straight shafts, recommends it to all.

BEST FOR WHEELMEN.

Careful wheelmen are never on the road without Reading's Russia Salve.
It is the best thing extant for bruises, sprains and cuts. Sold by Hollister Drug Co.

COLONY OF NINETY-NINE

ADVENTUROUS SPIRITS SAIL FOR THE SOUTH SEAS.

The Brig Percy Edwards Expected at Honolulu Next Week—She Is on Her Way to the Fiji Group.

Honolulu is to receive a visit in the near future from the United States Brotherhood of the South Sea Islands, the federation of adventurous spirits which recently purchased the brig Percy Edwards and fitted her out for a cruise in the South Seas, in search of a suitable place to establish a model colony. The Edwards sailed from San Francisco on February 26th, and, with fair weather, ought to reach Honolulu by the middle of next week.

The brig is commanded by Capt.
Peterson, an experienced navigator, and has on board ninety-nine vigorous men, the majority under 30 years of age, and all under 50. There are scarcely enough sailors aboard to handle the vessel, but of stout hearts and willing hands there are a plenty.
The San Francisco Chronicle says of the enterprise:

"The plan of the company has changed from the scheme of the originator, a clever promoter named Reinhardt. One day, reading an article in a newspaper about a manless isle in the southern seas Reinhardt and C.
W. Opdycke suggested an expedition to the place. Reinhardt hired a room on Mission street and gave out word that he was forming an expedition of men to become husbands to these dusky queens of the tropics. He knew nothing of the Pacific isles, but he had a large imagination and a glib tongue.
First he used only his imagination, then he procured a map and finally obtained a book describing a voyage among the islands. He relieved his overworked imagination by reading from the book to those who asked for information about the expedition. When about fifteen men had gathered around Reinhardt and Opdycke they murmured at Reinhardt's dictation and with such effect that afterward his contral waned until it was lost altogether. Opdycke is poor and could not gather the money to pay his share, hence he is not one of the ninety-nine on the brig. Reinhardt is on board the Percy Edwards, but not in authority. And the destination of the vessel is not one of the manless isles of the sea."

"Atwood says that the arrangements for the expedition were made with order and decorum. The articles of incorporation were drawn with care. Applicants for stock were investigated by a committee to the end that the lazy, the drunken and the dissolute should be excluded. Many applications were rejected. Some purchasers of stock paid $52, some $60, some $80 and some paid $100. Of the total sum collected $2,100 was paid for the brig Percy Edwards and $900 was the cost of fitting her for sea. The cost of edibles for the voyage was $1,600. For $600 were purchased calico, showy jewelry and trinkets, for use in trading among the island people. The remainder, with the exception of $200, was spent for agricultural implements, seeds, sewing machines, guns and ammunition, for use of the colonists when they shall have found a new home. The $200 is the cash capital of the corporation still in the treasury.
Several of the adventurers took musical instruments, violins, banjos and guitars.

"The destination is Leouka, one of the Fiji group, via Honolulu and Suva.
The company bears a letter from Her Britannic majesty's Consul General here to the British Governor of the islands. The information given the adventurers to Leouka is that the island is about the size of Maryland, with wooded mountains rich in minerals and plains of fertile soil. True it is that only two men of the ninety-nine have ever been in the islands of the Pacific, but if the information is meager the hope is great.

"Atwood says that no attempt to take forcible possession of any land will be made. The company will treat with the proper authorities and pay the natives for the land. The native population of Leouka is sparse, according to the two traveled men of the ninety-nine, and there is no preponderance of women."

"NOW IS THE TIME."

At this season of the year good housewives are thinking of replenish-ing their stock of bed and table linen, and for their special benefit L. B. Kerr has imported a large and varied lot, which he will sell at prices that no competition can come near.

EDITOR CALDWELL LEAVES

TIRES OF HILO AND ITS CARD PARTIES.

His Memory Was at Fault, But He Settled Before Leaving the Land of Welch Rarebits—Custom House.

Hilo, March 11.
Payson D. Caldwell, formerly editor of the Tribune, tried to get off to the States on the Annie Johnson this morning without having settled up a few little business matters with a firm in town. As he had not obtained a ticket before going aboard he was sent ashore to get one and this enabled the above mentioned firm to have an interview and wish him God speed. Caldwell arrived here about two years ago under the name of Caldwell.
Arthur Richardson has turned over his books to G. A. Turner, the new collector. Mr. Richardson's last act was to suspend Arthur Johnstone, the Port Surveyor, who, however, was immediately reappointed by Turner.

At an auction held in Hilo last week land up in the bush at Kaiwili sold for $49 an acre.

Carpenters are busy on our four new buildings: the church, hotel, Hackfeld's building and Turner's additional store.

There was a largely attended teachers' meeting last Friday at the Union school. Miss Severance, Miss Wright and Mrs. McStay brought classes showing their regular school work and Miss Mattie Richardson conducted a very successful class in calisthenics. The program ended with a talk from Miss Deys on the subject of teaching geography.

GLIMPSE OF JAPAN.

Bazaar and Entertainment at Queen Emma Hall.

The Japanese Bazaar at Queen Emma hall will continue throughout the afternoon and evening today. The ladies have made elaborate plans for the affair and they are certain of a financial success for their efforts.

The grounds of Emma hall will be transformed into a thoroughly typical Japanese village. There will be Japanese lanterns, Japanese decorations, Japanese articles for sale and Japanese women, and, in fact, everything will be strictly Japanese. The ladies will don the attractive garments worn by the daughters of that interesting little country. Mrs. H. Shimamura, wife of the Japanese diplomatic agent, will serve the tea.

The Government band will play during the afternoon. Admission 25 and 50 cents.

WILL RAISE THE FLAG.

The big Hawaiian flag purchased by Commodore George Beckley in San Francisco and brought down on the Helene will be raised this afternoon on the Commodore's Punchbowl lot.
It will be the largest and loftiest flag in Honolulu.

POLICE COURT.

Thomas Koikoi was given a six weeks' jail sentence by Judge De la Vergne in the Police Court this morning. Koikoi was convicted of malicious injury.

David Baker, who assaulted his wife, Esther Baker, the Nuuanu lei girl, was let off in the Police Court this morn-
